FLUID EXTRACT OF MALT.

THE use of that extremely valuable Food and Remedy EXTRACT OF MALT has been retarded by its usually viscous condition; to obviate this objection we have had prepared a FLUID EXTRACT OF MALT as easily poured out of the bottle and measured into doses as any other Fluid.

It contains as much of the DIASTASE as any viscous EXTRACT OF MALT and is therefore fully as active in tissue forming and digestive power.

Two table-spoonfuls of our FLUID EXTRACT OF MALT contains more nutritive and digestive value than a pint of the strongest Ale or Stout. In 12 bottles 75 cents. Per dozen $8.00. Hongkong, 12th January, 1893.

THE HONGKONG TELEGRAPH, HONGKONG, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1893.

TELEGRAMS. REVOLUTION AT HAWAII. LONDON, February 29th.

A bloodless revolution has taken place at Hawaii, and the Provisional Government has resolved to ask for annexation to the United States.

DEATH OF A GREAT STATESMAN. Mr. James G. Blaine, of Maine, until lately Secretary of State in President Harrison's Administration, and one of America's greatest statesmen, is dead.

LOCAL AND GENERAL. THE Kowloon City tiger is still alive and kicking. Stole a pig last night.

AFTER a very successful season in Mandalay, Woodyear's Circus returned to Rangoon on the 21st ult., to give a few special performances before proceeding to Calcutta.

A DECREE has been issued at Lisbon ordering a reduction in the tonnage duty on vessels calling at St. Vincent, Cape Verde, with the object of attracting shipping to that port.

THE P. M. S. S. Co.'s steamer City of Rio de Janeiro, with mails, &c., from San Francisco to the 14th ult., has arrived at Yokohama, and will leave for this port to-morrow morning.

TWO European employees at the Kowloon mines, M. M. Gregorio and Samuel, killed their Chinese cook a few days ago in a fit of passion, and buried the body in order to avoid discovery. They are now under arrest.

ST. PETER'S SEAMEN'S CHURCH.—The Mission steam-launch Day Spring will call alongside vessels holding code pennant C, between 9 and 10.30 a.m. on Sunday, to convey men ashore to the 11 o'clock service, returning about 12.30 p.m.

THE negotiations for carrying on the Hongkong mines have not yet reached a stage so far advanced as to justify any definite announcement, but it is practically assured that shareholders and others interested are not to lose anything.

MAJOR S. J. M. JOPPE, Northamptonshire Regt., a popular and useful member in Hongkong amateur dramatic circles during his stay in the colony, has been appointed an instructor in military topography at the Royal Military College, Sandhurst.

OUR naval architect says the N. Y. Maritime Register, should endeavor to find or invent a better system of ventilation of steamships and cables of passenger steamers than now exists. It is a matter in which good improvement is possible, and as so much is expected of American ingenuity, it should make some success in this direction.

OUR Shanghai morning contemporary reports that Mr. D. Marr Henderson shot on Sunday the 29th ult., in his garden on the Bubbling Well Road, after a long chase, a male specimen of the Little Spotted Cuckoo (Viverra Malacensis). It had recently killed a hare the mangled remains of which were found in the bushes. Its weight was 4½ pounds.

FROM Banda a correspondent writes to the Sourabaya Courant that on the 31st December, Mr. Ronde, chief officer of the steamer Ophir, kicked a native seaman because he was slow in executing an order. The native drew a knife and mortally wounded the officer, who died in hospital the same afternoon. The slayer was arrested immediately.

THE Smalk, which brought 5,500 tons of Cardiff coal to Singapore for the Messageries Maritimes Co. the other week, is said to be the largest sailing vessel in the world. She is a four-masted, measures 335 feet on the keel, is 47 feet in breadth with a depth of 24 feet, and is fitted with steam winches, steam windlass and all other modern improvements.

It is again reported that the Brazilian Government has entered into negotiations with the Mikado of Japan for importing into the Brazilian plantations a number of agricultural laborers to take the place of the emancipated negroes; and that companies have been started in Rio and San Paulo for the establishment of a line of steamers between Brazil and the East for the purpose of bringing over Asiatic immigrants.

MR. WALTER BENTLEY, the well-known Shakespearean actor, writes to us from Wellington, New Zealand, that he intends visiting the Far East with a powerful company during the present year. At the time of writing he was unable to definitely fix a date, but probably it would be towards the end of the year. Mr. Bentley is an accomplished actor and, inadequately supported, will doubtless do well in a tour through the East.

AN LITERARY gem from our reliable morning contemporary:—"We note that the Strait Times reproduces, in a connection implying that it had been taken from our columns of the Daily Press, the statement that during the recent cold weather there was a heavy snowfall at Canton and Macao. There was no snow at either place."

The statement referred to was published in the Hongkong Telegraph, and the head-headed Wyndham Street Annals notwithstanding, it was absolutely true.

WE would direct attention to the furniture warehouse lately established by Mr. Li Kwong Loong at No. 4 Wyndham Street, particulars of which will be found set out in our advertising columns: Mr. Li Kwong Loong has had many years experience as a cabinet maker, etc. in Shanghai, and his productions are of the very best class both as regards materials and workmanship, and his prices are most reasonable. He has a varied assortment of useful and elegant furniture of the latest designs now in stock, which will well repay a visit of inspection.

FROM a notice in another column it will be seen that the reconstructed Chartered Mercantile Bank of India, London and China, under its new name, The Mercantile Bank of India, Limited, has resumed active operations in this colony. The manner in which this Bank has surmounted its recent troubles, the solid financial position it now occupies, and the probability of better times for business generally, were subjects of the East, should inspire under Mr. Thurnham's experienced management a prosperous future for the new institution.

WHAT is this disease that is coming upon the race whom Governor Sir William Robinson proposes to substitute for free-born Britons in the public offices of Hongkong? It would be difficult to say exactly how many of these gentry have gracefully performed the Vanishing Act during the past few years, but their name is legion. Mr. Alver, the trusted cashier of the Government Treasury, followed the example of the notorious Barradas of the Money Order Office the other day and his whereabouts are still a mystery—and so is the amount of his delinquencies. We shall have a lot to say about Mr. Alver's and Colonial Treasury management and supervision all in due course; but what we wanted to chronicle now was the falling from rectitude of another nobleman—this time in Singapore. He is a youth, bearing the distinguished name of Xavier Montolio, and he has disappeared on January 25th before the Singapore Assize Court and charged with misappropriating $3, the money of the Municipality, and with fraudulently altering the figures in a permit, while temporarily employed in the Municipality in the absence of one of its servants. On conviction Señor Montolio was sentenced to six months imprisonment. Perhaps in view of recent occurrences, and under all the circumstances, Governor Robinson may see fit to abandon his proposed novel method of economy in filling the clerical and other subordinate positions of the Civil Service with distinguished foreigners! We have against his Excellency, on mature consideration, will abandon his pet scheme.

A REGULAR meeting of St. John's Lodge, No. 618, S.C., will be held in Freemasons' Hall, Zeland Street, on Monday, the 19th instant, at 8.30 for 9 p.m. precisely. Visiting brethren are cordially invited.

Visitor to the Swail Office—What's the meaning of those yells and curses to-day? Reporters—Some one has stolen "Brownie's" spelling book and grammar and the Waters went Murrum in consequence.

THE Calcutta Statesman on his Excellency of Singapore.—We observe that Sir Cecil Smith, the Governor of the Straits Settlements, will shortly leave Singapore, where his regime has not been popular, nor exactly in accord with the views of the Home authorities. It is said that he will have an opportunity of sailing gracefully, and that he has been offered the Governorship of Tasmania, where his autocratic ideas will find less scope for their mischievous exercise. It is not thought likely, however, that he will accept the post, for he has been too long accustomed to a free hand in all the Eastern colonial appointments he has held. It is said that influence will be brought to bear to provide him with a lucrative post as director of some of the large London companies. The Morocco Company will probably select him to office and he will most likely sit on the London board of one of the great Eastern banks, besides figuring on some such association as that which Mr. Cecil Rhodes now directs. An otherwise clever, shrewd man, Sir Cecil Smith has too great a contempt for unofficial opinion, and is too autocratic in his views, to suit Singapore, while at the same time he has been unable to work with the Home authorities. Those who know his career will not be surprised at his being compelled to retire from official life, and mainly too, through the representations of a class whom he affects so contemptuously to disregard.

A SONG. What fools they were! He kissed her eyes, Her hand, her lips, her brow; He swore the love that never dies, That never takes its wings and flies— And she returned the vow. What fools they were!

How sweet the dream! when eager arms, Made bold by the night, Draw closer still her throbbing charms, And passion sounds its soft alarms In murmurs of delight. How sweet the dream!

'Twas always spring; that golden year No change of season knew; They saw no winter drawing near— No time of trouble long and drear— Though cold the breezes blew. 'Twas always spring.

A false reply by one too proud, When frankness might atone For trifling fault; she laughed aloud, They parted in the careless crowd, And went their ways alone— Without "good-bye."

Al! vain attempt to soon forget The "non-sensuous" of the past— To stifle pangs of wild regret, To break the bonds that held them yet So mercilessly fast. Al! vain attempt.

What fools they were! Without a word The truth is simply told. Her capote whist her fingers gird; The moon beamed brighter when he heard Once more the vows of old. What fools they were!

Written for the Sydney Bulletin by Edmond Fisher, Melbourne.

TRAINING NOTES. The fact that we are within eighteen days of the races has doubtless a good deal to do with the large attendance at the Race-course this morning, as far as work must now be the rule and, of course, even outsiders become interested when slow exercise gallops give place to regular "pows." A lot of galloping, as was expected, took place, and although nothing very striking in the shape of fast times was recorded, there was sufficient done to give a fair idea of the racing merits of the leading ponies in training than had previously been the case. Another gratifying circumstance was the resumption of active work by Mr. Buxey's three crackers, Home Guard, Royalty, and Bold Heart, and although the first named seemed a bit off colour, the other pair did sufficiently well and looked sound enough to warrant confident hopes that they will not be amongst the "missing" on the 23rd inst.

The race-track was in good order, but a trifling holding in places owing to the heavy dew which had fallen throughout the night. Vagrant, commencing rather slowly, strode along for a mile and a half in taking style, and came down the straight at a rattling pace—times, 20½, 1.15, 1.25, 2.35, 3.02½, and 3.34. For a mile and a quarter the speedy Merry Thought made 41½, 1.31, 1.40½, 2.20½, and 2.54½, finishing in good form. Mr. White's subscription gelding Amenable was sent a mile at a nice pace and showed up very well indeed, his record being—3½, 60½, 1.47, and 2.19½. Last year's "sub" Porpoise, from the same stable, galloped a mile in 37, 1.13, 1.28, and 2.22, going strongly throughout.

Two of the Derby-Hunter confederates, the German Cyp distance in 34½, 68½, 1.44½, 2.24, and 2.59½, and doubtless gave their owners complete satisfaction, even although the final quarter was not so fast as it ought to have been.

Mr. John Peel's Juniper was accompanied by Guardsman for a mile and a quarter, the latter having all the best of the spin at the finish. The register was 36, 69, 1.44, 2.20½, and 2.57½. Guardsman taking two seconds longer. Mr. Buxey's Derby candidate, Flashlight, was ridden by Mr. Master over the classic distance in 37½, 1.13, 1.47½, 2.22½, 2.58, and 3.31½—a very satisfactory performance under all circumstances. Majestic, by himself, went riding along for a mile in 33.69½, 1.45, and 2.19½, finishing with great resolution. Bovi, I believe, was in the enclosure, but is still unable to appear on the course. Mr. Morton Jones steered Skewton in a steady mile, the evergreen due showing freely and well—times, 35, 69½, 1.43, and 2.19½.

Mr. Jay's cream Motor and Mr. J. D. Humphreys' Varona galloped together a mile in 33.66½, 1.45½, and 2.19½, the free-going chestnut greatly disappointing his admirers, who had actually set him down as a dangerous Derby candidate, by a slovenly finish. Bold Heart had no difficulty in putting Euthusast in the shade in a slow mile and a half gallop, the chronograph recording 37, 1.13, 1.47½, 2.24, 3.01, and 3.37. Enthusiast's full line was 3.45. Thunderbolt's mile and a quarter gallop was one of the best during the morning—36.69½, 1.44½, 2.21½, and 2.53½—and against the moderate cattle he is likely to encounter at this meeting, last year's Purse Cup winner is likely enough to upset calculations. Mr. John Peel's dam gelding Liberty showed promising form in carrying a mile and a quarter in 35.68½, 1.44, 2.19, and 2.54, and will probably represent the Ewo stable in the Derby with a fair prospect of success.

Laugh-a-Ballegh (Captain Moore), Assyrian (Capt. Thomas), and Blooming Heather (Mr. Morton Jones), "powed" a mile in 34½, 1.10, 1.45, and 2.24½, the last named being beaten several lengths. Captain Gould-Adams' Derby gelding Camel was sent a slow mile and a quarter gallop with Mr. Taylor's Freigraf—times 36½, 1.11½, 1.47½, 2.26½, and 3.01½, both ponies going strongly to the end. Mr. Hart-Buck's "sub" Mervyn covered a mile in 36, 1.13, 1.50, and 2.24½, and certainly shows improvement on his previous form. Black Pearl strode along over the Derby course in grand style, going strongly throughout, in 39, 1.12½, 1.45½, 2.21, 2.55, and 3.29. This powerful black will be a hard nut to crack in the Derby should all go well with him up to race day.

Mountaineer (Mr. Master), Torchlight ("Monkey"), and Royalty (Malcol), were sent a mile and a half in company; the two geldings held a long lead of the Shanghai St. Leger winner until three furlongs from home, where he commenced to rapidly overtake them, and getting on terms half-way down the straight, the altered dead-end romped in, pulling double. The geldings' times were slow, namely, 36½, 1.11, 1.45, 2.21, 2.57, and 3.38, but Royalty must have made a very fast last half-mile. Tailman and the held over Solace kept close together for a capital mile and a half spin, the clock registering 38, 1.12½, 1.46½, 2.22½, 2.57½, and 3.28, and on this running the second in last year's German Cup ought to have a great chance for the Jockey Cup.

Mr. Buxey's bay Derby gelding Islander was ridden by "Punch" for a mile and a half, accomplishing the distance in 40½, 1.16½, 1.52½, 2.29½, 3.05½, and 3.39½, and over the same course Mr. Hart-Buck steered the steeplechaser Viper in 39½, 1.20½, 1.59½, 2.44½, 3.09½, and 3.42. Reciprocation travelled a mile and a half with Pepper and Salt in 41, 1.18½, 1.54½, 2.32, 3.08½, and 3.47½. Colonel Mr. Master up, upon along over the Valley Stakes distance in 35, 69, and 1.44, and then Home Guard encompassed a mile at a steady pace—times 35, 1.12, 1.48, and 2.21, finishing full of "go." The Amoy sprinter, Patmore, "powed" a mile with Mr. Taylor's subscription gelding First Trade, winning in a canter in 35, 69, and 1.42½.

AN OLD SPORTSMAN. Hongkong, 4th February, 1891.

THE DOMESTIC LIFE OF A CHINESE GENTLEMAN.

In the Flowery Kingdom the family is the social unit rather than the individual. As a consequence the home assumes much greater prominence than in the Western civilisations. The glided youth of our great American cities who live in clubs and have no fireside of their own, have no parallel in China. Such a person would be completely ostracised in the Far East. Every Chinese gentleman has a home and bestows upon it all the time, thought and money he can possibly afford. His mode of living presents many interesting features to the Western observer. Among these the more noticeable are its simplicity, economy and quietude. To belong to this class of gentlemen, the first requisite is a moderate amount of money. This ranges from $10,000 to $20,000 and averages about $12,000. Out of this the owner buys a fine dwelling-place, in the fashionable quarters of a Chinese city, this costs from $2,000 to $3,500, in a respectable district from $1,500 to $2,000, and in a suburb or town from $1,000 to $1,500. The high rents and enormous real estate values of China are unknown to the celebrities. Here is a simple land-system, which combines the single tax theory of Henry George with the communal ownership of the Russian villages, prevents all speculation in land, and avoids the formation of an "uncured increment."

The house of a Chinese gentleman is seldom very attractive on
